A Note for Parents & Teachers

Thank you for nurturing the hearts and minds of our little ones. You play a beautiful role in helping children grow with confidence, compassion, and kindness.

This book is all about celebrating kindness—in our words, actions, and hearts. When we choose kindness, we make the world brighter for everyone.

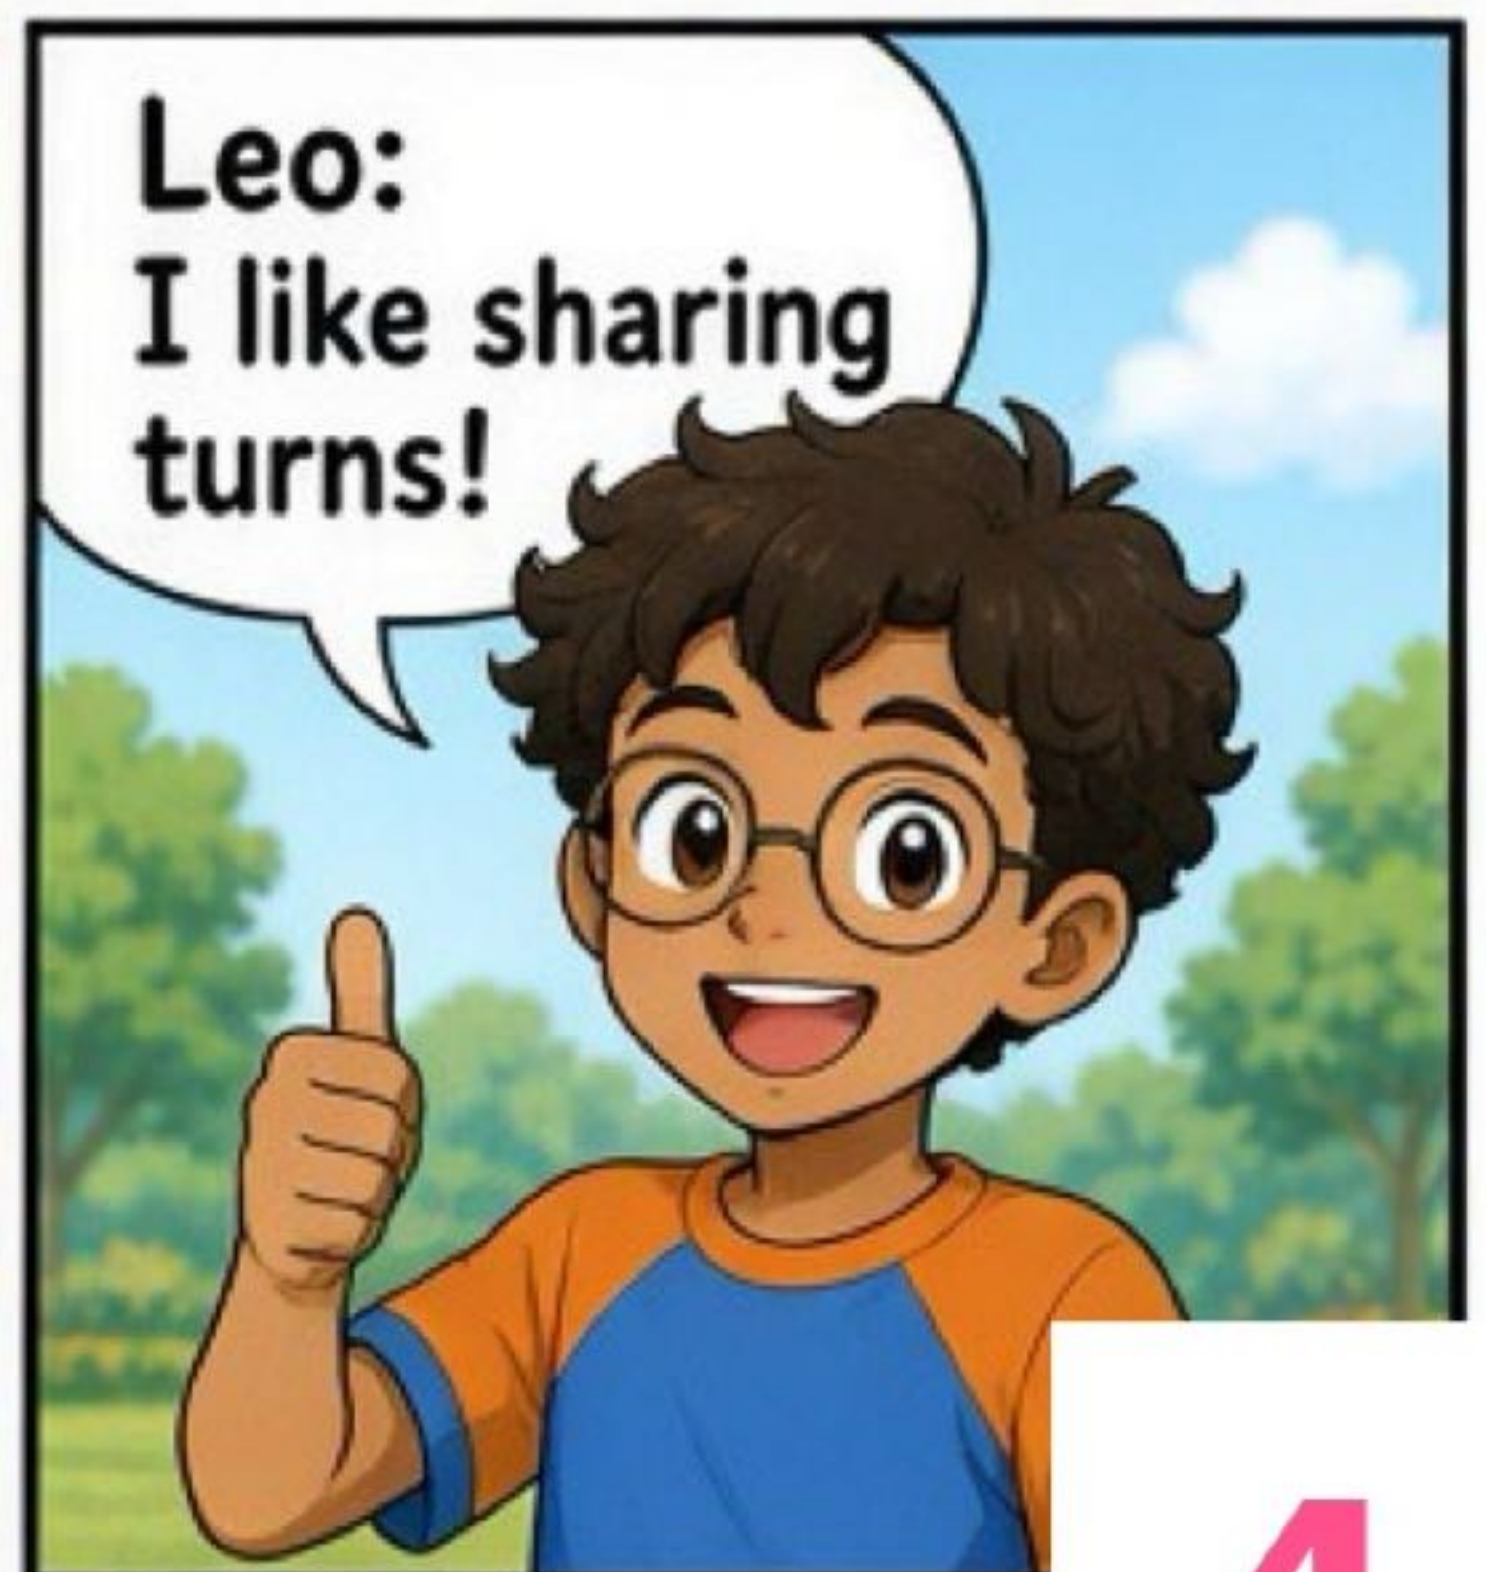

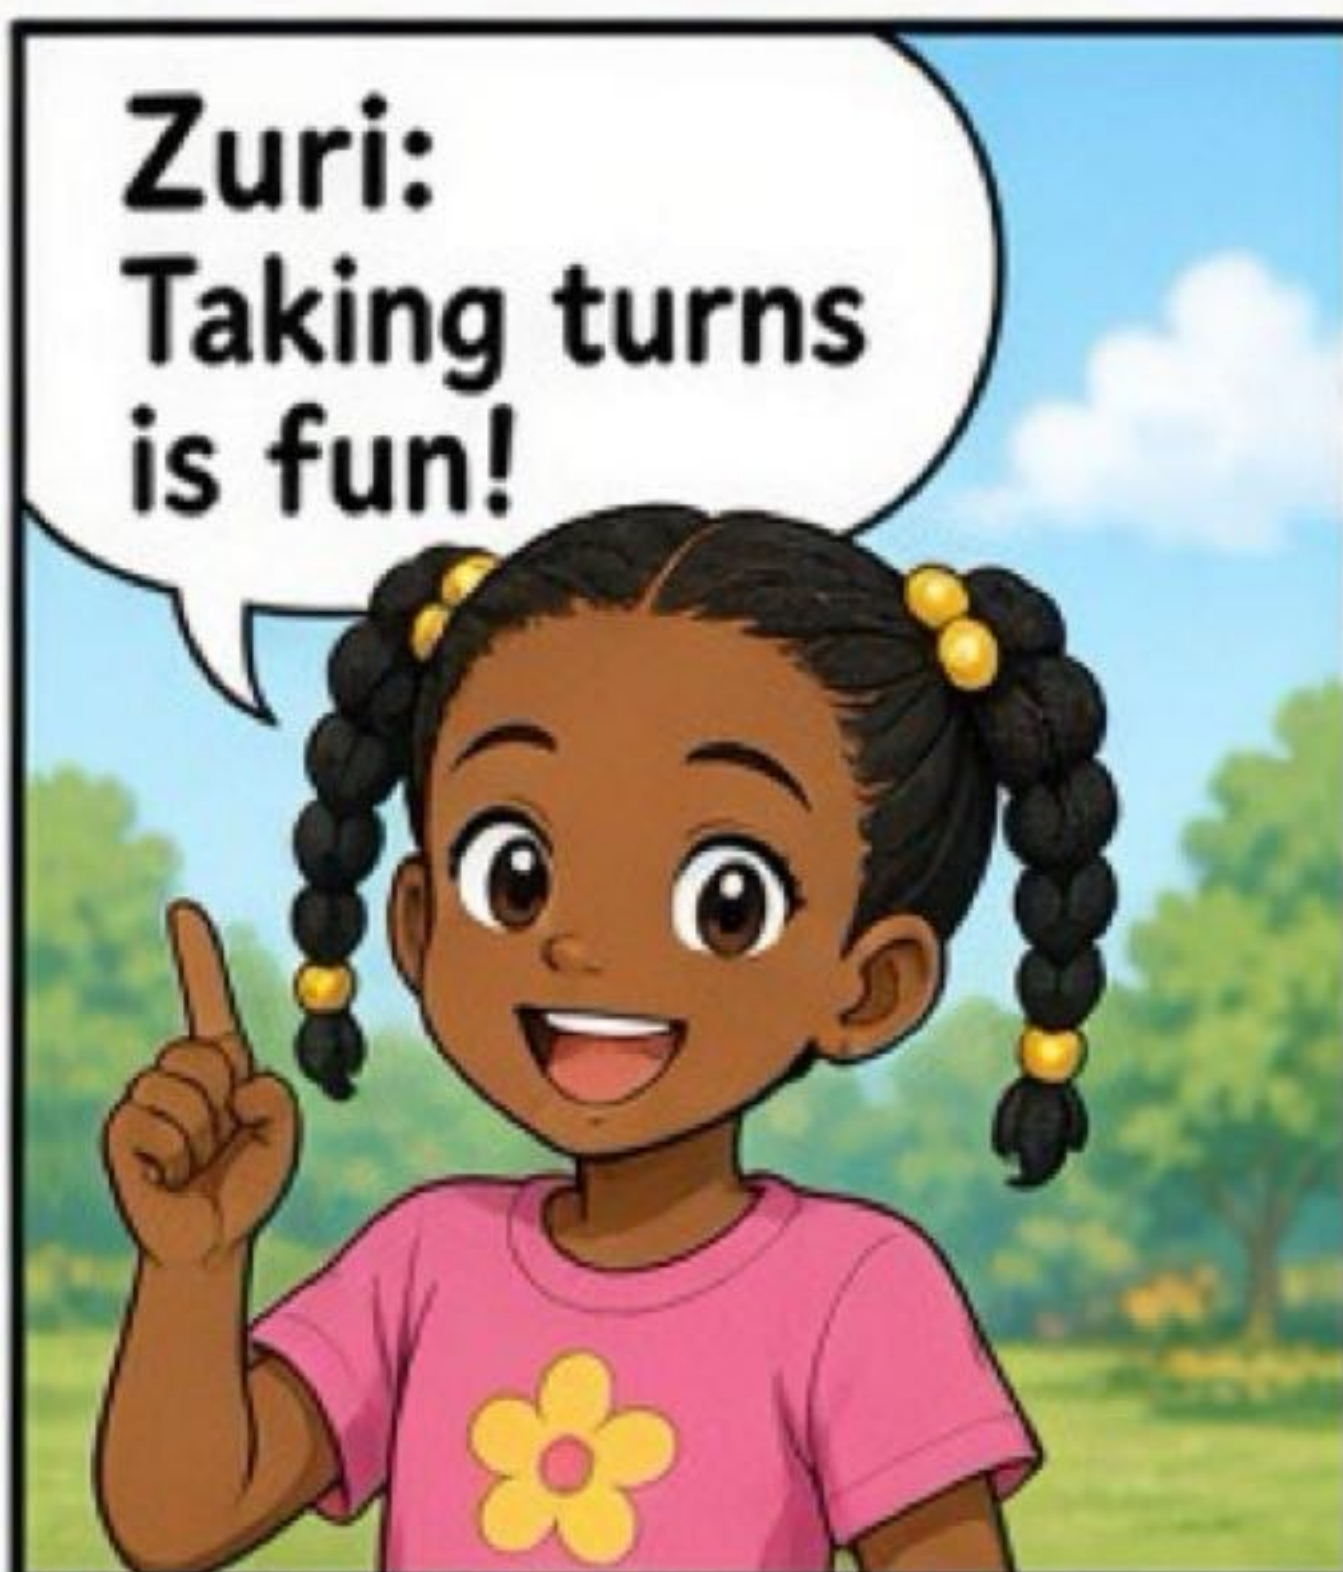

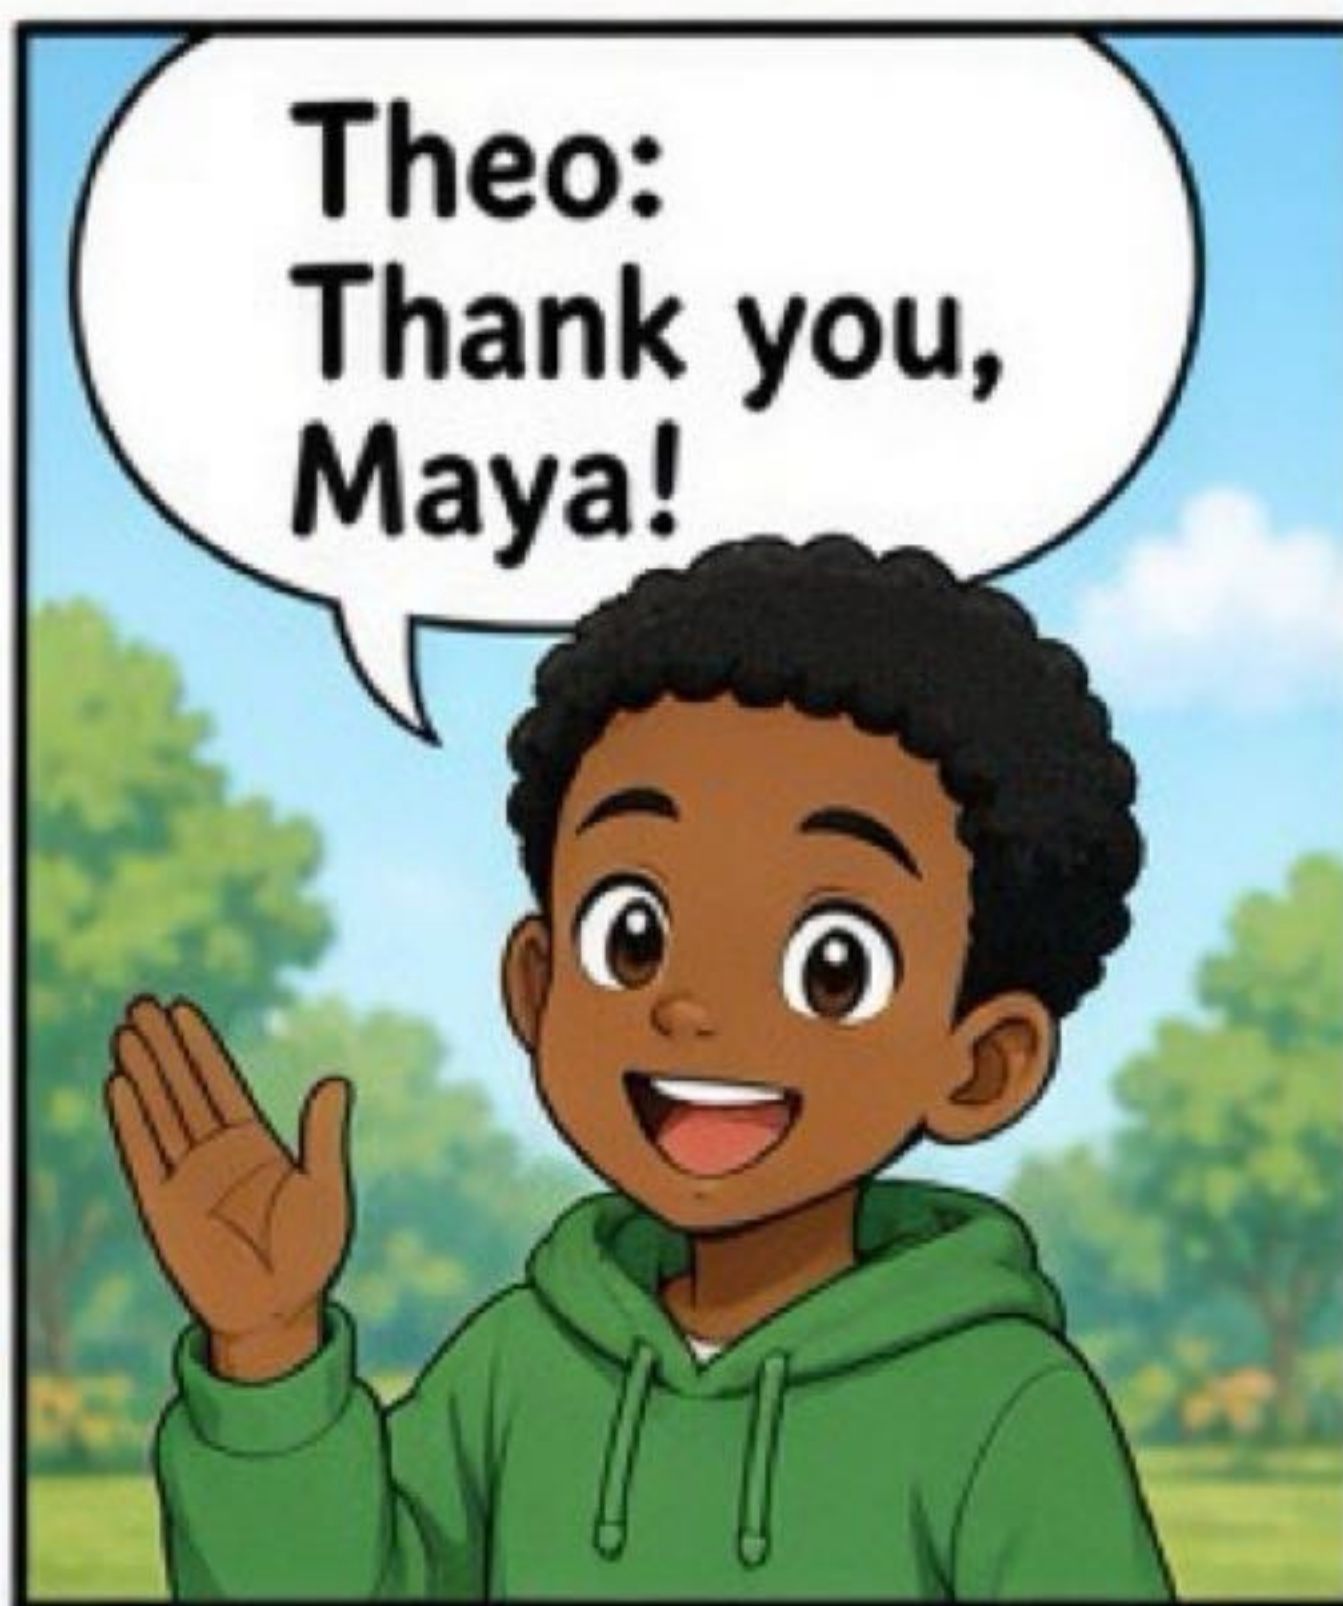

For ages 6-8, may these pages inspire children to be kind, to care, and to believe in their ability to make a difference.

*With love,

Kind words make hearts happy.

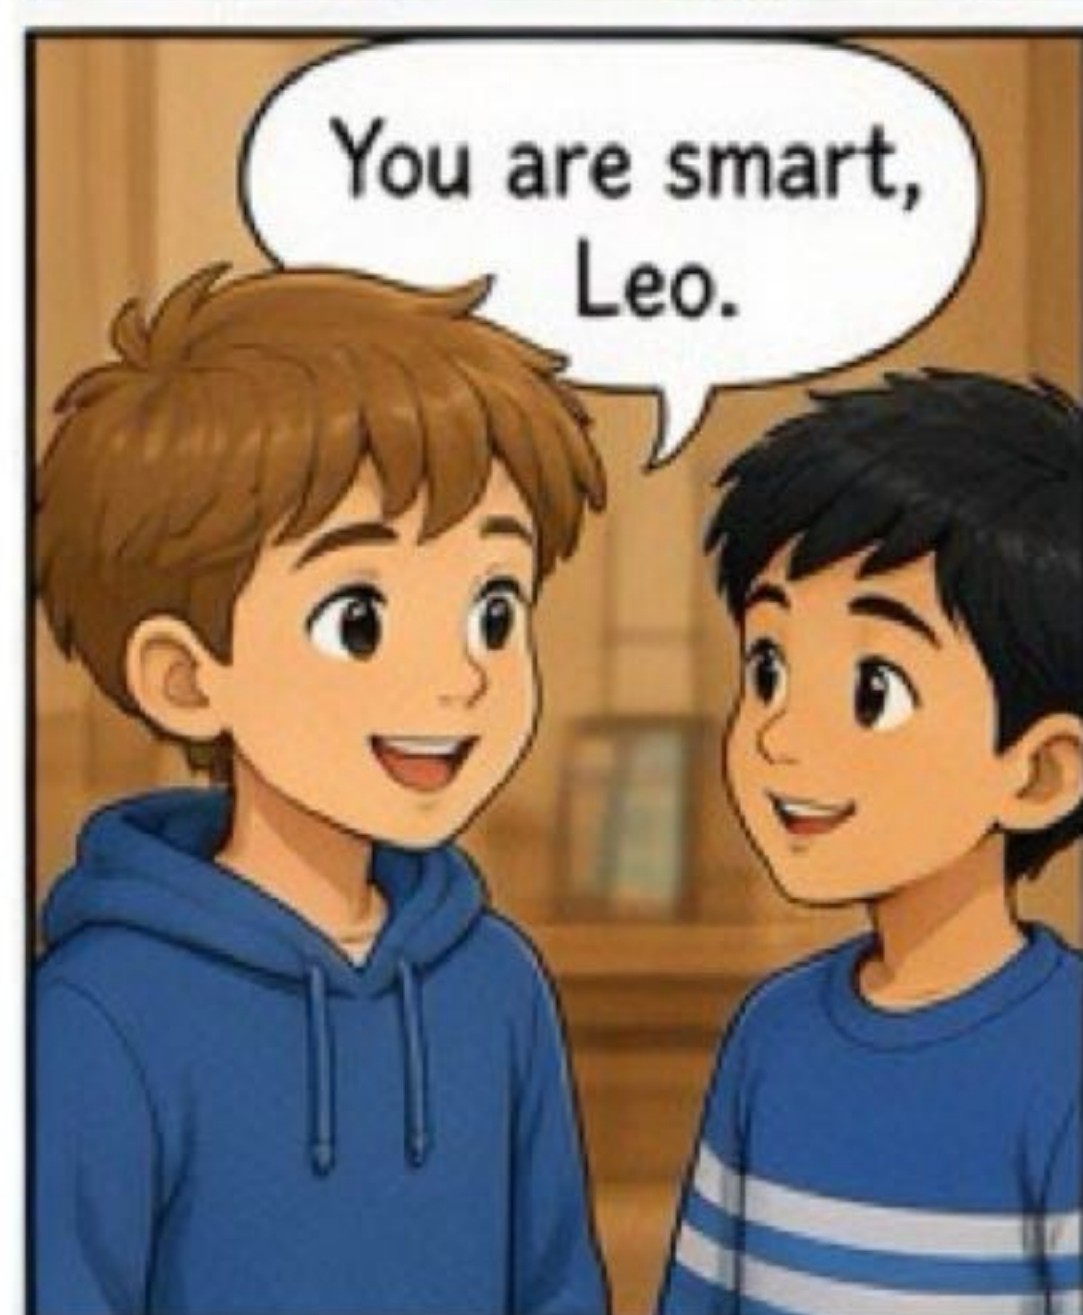

You are a good friend, Kai.

Thank you, Maya! That makes me happy.

I like your smile, Zuri.

Thank you! You are kind too.

You are smart, Leo.

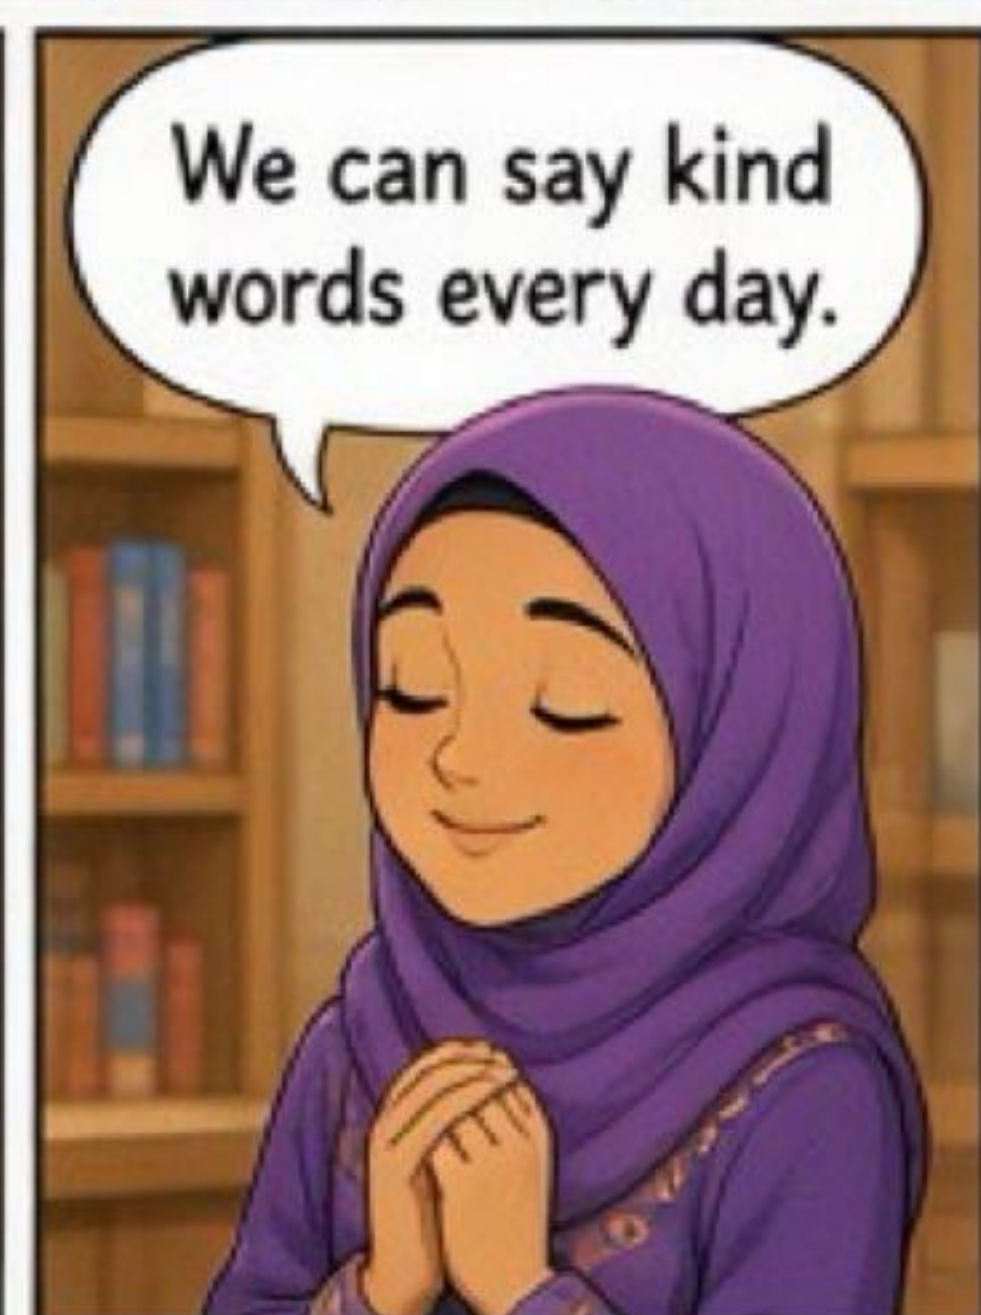

Wow... thank you, Theo!

Kind words feel nice to say.

And nice to hear!

We can say kind words every day.

Kind words are a superpower.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a pink sweater, blue jeans, a tiara, and a white sash that says "MISS UGANDA" in red letters, stands in a park with trees and a path in the background. She has her arms outstretched.

What have we learned in the Kindness Club?

A young girl with dark skin and hair in two buns, wearing a pink shirt, is speaking with her hands open.

We learned to share!

A young boy with dark hair, wearing a green hoodie, is speaking with his hands open.

We take turns.

A young girl with dark skin wearing a purple hijab and a purple long-sleeved shirt is speaking with her hands open.

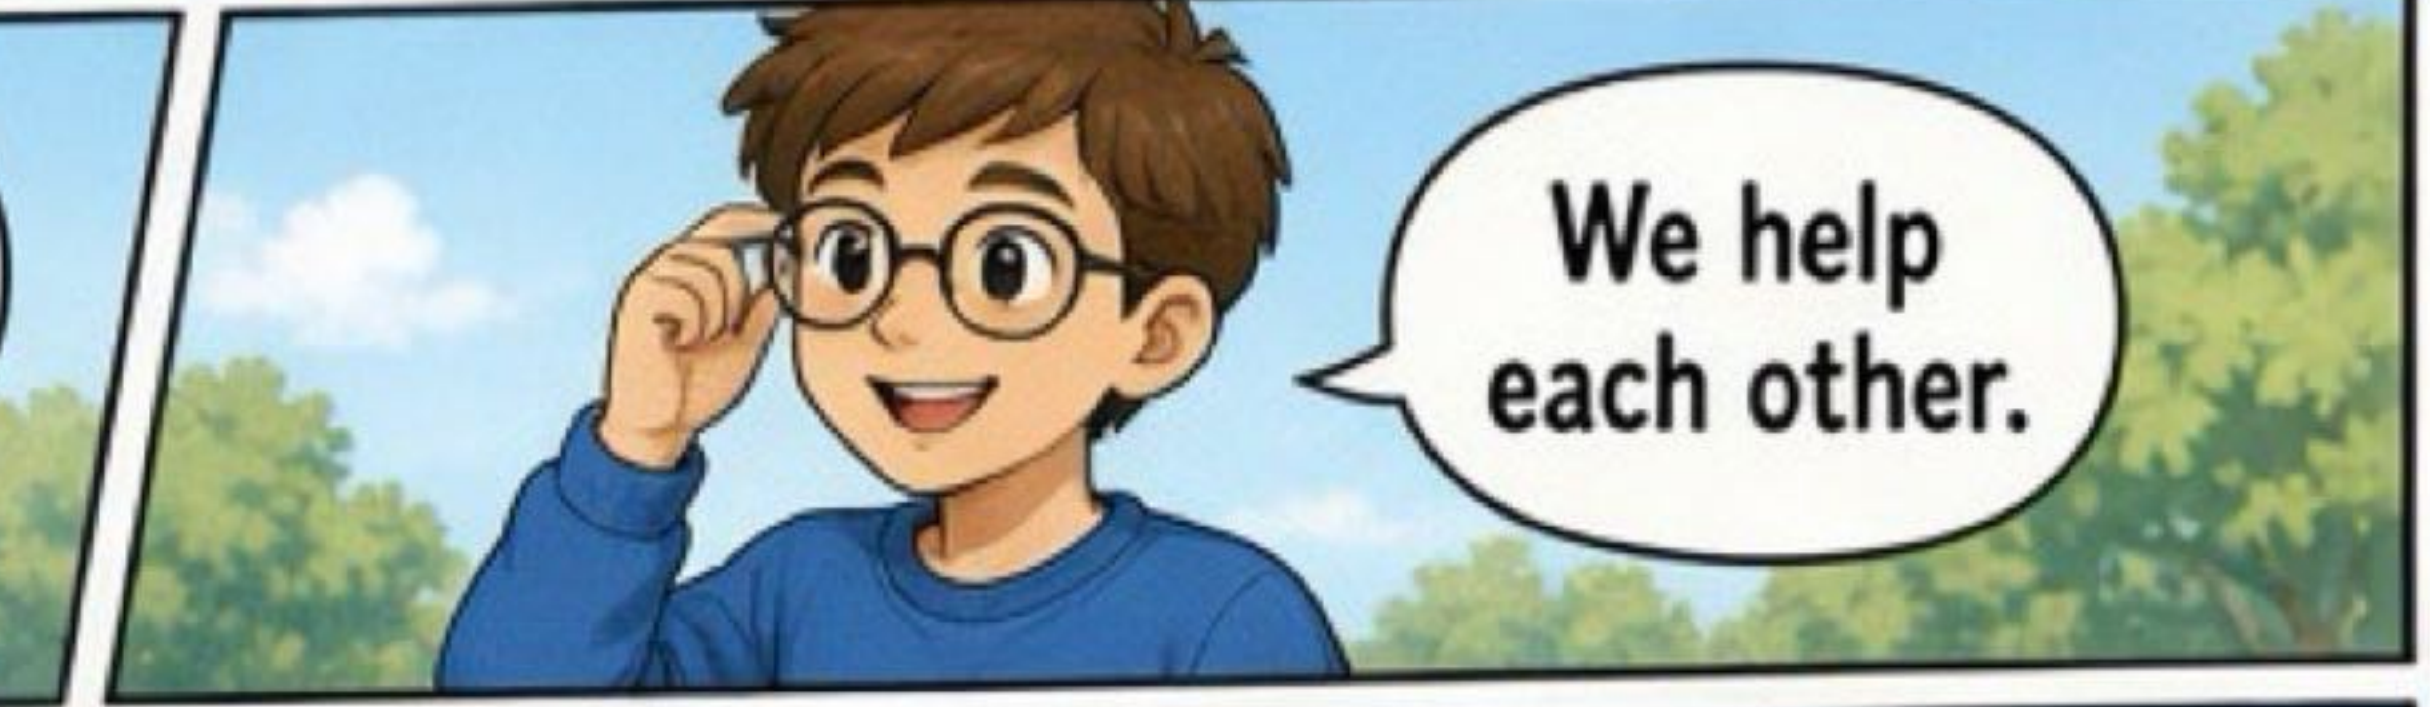

We say sorry
when we hurt someone.

A young boy with light brown hair, wearing a blue hoodie, is speaking with his hands open.

We say thank you.

A young girl with dark skin and curly hair, wearing a yellow shirt with white polka dots, is speaking with her hands open.

We include everyone.

A young boy with brown hair and glasses, wearing a blue shirt, is speaking with his hands open.

We help
each other.

A young girl with dark skin and hair in two buns, wearing a pink shirt, is speaking with her hands open.

We use kind words!

A young boy with dark hair, wearing a green hoodie, is speaking with his hands open.

Kindness is our superpower!

The woman from the first panel is in the center, surrounded by the six children from the previous panels. They are all hugging her. She is wearing the "MISS UGANDA" sash. The children are wearing their respective clothes from the previous panels.

Yes! You remembered everything. I am so proud of you.
